Content	This collection documents the activities of the Unity of the Brethren Church in Granger, Texas in calendar date order for the years 1921-1925. It contains the personal notes, sermons, and information on the members and the church activities documented by Reverend Joseph Barton overseeing the congregation within the time periods in the series above. Significant dates such as birth, marriage, and death records of individuals within the congregation can be found within this journal.
Technical Translation	An accurate translation of the original material in English was attempted, but due to the difficulties of translation slight differences may exist. While reasonable efforts were made to provide a translation, no liability and no responsibility is to be assumed for any errors, omissions, or ambiguities in the translations.

Technical translation con't

In translation of this text, care was taken to represent dates and facts exactly as written. Where information was in question or truly in error, additional research was performed to verify and validate the true representation. Any additional information added to the translation was provided in light grey italics or documented as footnotes within the page. No assumption or conjecture was made regarding conflicting dates between sections of the manuscript and information was simply translated as written within each specific section.

Conditions governing reproduction

Authorization to publish, cite, quote, or reproduce any item from this collection must be obtained from the Unity of the Brethren archivist or local Granger Brethren congregation board of elders. Copyright retained by the donor during her lifetime, at which point it will revert to the Unity of the Brethren Church. Please consult the Granger Brethren Church for further information.

Notes
